DEFECTIVE BRIEF

The Appeal Brief is not in compliance with the new rules of 37 CFR § 41.37(c), which states in part: (v) Summary of Claimed Subject Matter.

A concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims involved in the appeal, which shall refer to the specification by page and line number and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters. For each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claims argued separately, every means plus functions and step plus function under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, must be identified and the structure, material, or acts described in the specification as corresponding to each claimed function with references to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(v)).

The "Summary of Claimed Subject Matter" appearing on page 7 of the Appeal Brief filed June 13, 2006, is deficient because it does not separately map independent claims 19 and 32 to the specification.

When the Office holds the brief to be defective solely due to appellant's failure to provide a summary of the claimed subject matter as required by 37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(v), an entire new brief need not, and should not, be filed. Rather, a coaper providing a summary of the claimed subject matter as required by 37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(v) will suffice. Failure to timely respond to the Office's requirement will result in dismissal of the appeal. See MPEP § 1215.04 and §711.02(b).
